

RECOMMENDED TEXT FOR C.I.G. ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 6a

1. To the end that the Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff, acting for the Director, may fully discharge its designated responsibility to maintain continuous supervision of the planning and coordination of the intelligence activities of the Central Intelligence Group, the Executive Director, after an appropriate review for administrative coordination, will refer to Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff for overall planning and policy coordination all proposed procedures, policies, and plans, related to intelligence matters which may originate in any Office of the CIG. Wherever practicable, all projects undertaken by the Offices of CIG, having a direct or indirect impact on CIG intelligence procedures, policies, or plans, will be coordinated with the ICAP Staff from their inception. Any such project requiring consultation with the intelligence agencies of the Government must be so coordinated.

2. ICAPS may direct the Offices of CIG to conduct such studies or provide such assistance as it considers necessary to its own work. Such directives shall be forwarded through the Executive Director, for administrative coordination.

3. In conducting the studies for the coordination of the intelligence activities of the State, War, Navy, and other governmental agencies and individuals, the Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff will correspond and otherwise maintain direct liaison with the various intelligence agencies of the Government and with related individuals and organizations.

4. The Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff will call upon the Secretariat, NIA, through the Executive Director, for the final drafting of all CIG papers on intelligence policies, procedures, and plans, based on its own or other studies, which it may desire prepared for presentation to the Director or through the Director to the NIA.

5. The Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff will furnish or designate all CIG representatives on departmental or interdepartmental committees, including committees of the JCS. All liaison with Government agencies on intelligence matters will be conducted for CIG by ICAPS.

6. Acting for the Director, the Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff will have full responsibility for the enforcement of the proper implementation of those intelligence policies, procedures, and plans, approved by the NIA.

7. The Interdepartmental Coordinating and Planning Staff will make available the necessary space and facilities for such special liaison officers as may be designated by the other agencies of the Government to the CIG for intelligence matters.
